The University of California Davis, School of Veterinary Medicine's Department of Population Health and Reproduction invites friends, family, and colleagues to a memorial celebration in honor of a man internationally known as "the father of veterinary epidemiology." His sweeping scholarly interests and accomplishments in seemingly disparate fields like medicine, anthropology, and parasitology introduced him to a wonderful array of colleagues in a wide range of disciplines on the UC Davis campus and from throughout the world.

Please join us March 26, 2007, 2:00-4:00pm at the University Club on the Davis campus.
