

Equine Breeder's Shortcourse
Equine Reproduction Service
Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital
UC Davis
Davis, CA 95616
Gladys Valley Hall
Saturday, January 27, 2007

Program

- 8:30 AM Welcome
8:45 AM Breeding your mare with transported equine semen: Pitfalls, problems and how to avoid them. Dr. James Brown
9:30 AM Breeding your mare with frozen semen: What's new and where are the problems with this procedure. Dr. James Brown
10:15 AM Break
10:45 AM Managing the problem broodmare: What are my options? Dr. Barry Ball
11:30 AM Routine care of the pregnant and foaling mare. Dr. Anthony Claes
12:15 PM Lunch (catered on site?)
1:45 PM New techniques in horse breeding: What's possible and what's practical for my horse? Dr. Aaron Hodder
2:45 PM The stallion: Is my stallion a candidate for transported or frozen semen? – Dr. Barry Ball
3:45 PM Summary / Question and Answer session.

Course Summary:

This course is designed to provide equine breeders with up-to-date information regarding reproductive management of both the mare and the stallion. Information will be delivered in a one-day lecture course designed with ample time for questions and discussion with course faculty.

Course Instructors:

Barry A. Ball, DVM, PhD, Diplomate ACT; Hughes Professor of Equine Reproduction, UC Davis

James Brown, BVSc, Diplomate ACT; Instructor in Equine Reproduction; UC Davis

Aaron Hodder, BVSc; Resident in Equine Reproduction; UC Davis

Anthony Claes, DVM; Resident in Equine Reproduction; UC Davis

RSVP by January 20, 2007 to klney@vmth.ucdavis.edu or blstewart@ucdavis.edu or Call 530-752-7668

Cost $35.00 / after January 20, 2007 cost $45.00

Gladys Valley Hall
Vet Med Instructional Facility

