

Induction Room

The induction room is dedicated to anesthesia induction and surgical preparation. All patients will be overseen by a qualified anesthesiologist, and equipped with advanced monitoring equipment for real-time adjustments to ensure patient comfort and safety. Additionally, it is equipped with all necessary tools and supplies for the comprehensive preparation of the surgical site, including tasks such as shaving and initial cleaning before transferring the patient to the operating room.