

2021 GLOBAL PROGRAMS STUDENT PRESENTATIONS

5:00-6:00pm on Thursday, September 16

1020 Valley (Dinner on Valley Lawn)

Join us for dinner and an exciting evening of presentations and amazing videos from veterinary students who received International Summer Externships and Global Fellowships from the Office for Global Programs to explore professional opportunities around the world.

Time	Name	Country	Category	Title of Presentation
5:00 – 5:10	Associate Dean Woutrina Smith & Dean John Pascoe	Opening Remarks
5:10 – 5:15	Samantha Pulgini	Remote-Mozambique	One Health/Wildlife	The Road to Coexistence: A Remote Approach to Addressing Human-Carnivore Conflict and Biodiversity Loss in Mozambique
5:15 – 5:20	Melissa Thurston	RxOH/Alternate	One Health	Game Fowl Wellness Program & Rx One Health
5:20 – 5:25	Henry Ascencio	Uganda	Wildlife	Stereotypic Behavior and Intestinal Parasite Prevalence in Captive African Lions in Uganda
5:25 – 5:30	Claire Bellis	Remote-South Korea	Small Animal/Animal Welfare	Analysis of South Korean Residents' Reactions to Government Intervention Regarding Stray Cats in Seoul
5:30 – 5:35	Amber McElhinney	Remote-East Coast	Equine	Equine Clinical Experience
5:35-5:40	Calvin Price	South Africa	Wildlife	Wildlife Clinical Experience & White Rhino Validation Study in South Africa
5:40-5:45	Iliana Zisman	Remote-Bolivia	Wildlife/Mixed Species/One Health	Assessment of Injury and Impact of Mitigation Measures on Wildlife Affected by Fires in the Chiquitanía Region of the Bolivian Amazon
5:45-5:50	Joie Lin	Canada	Marine Wildlife/Pathology	Externing at the Vancouver Aquarium
5:50-6:00	Panel Discussion and Questions	Presenters Answer Questions from the Audience
6:00	Associate Dean Woutrina Smith	Closing Remarks and Dinner		